As you can see, we've lost five teams from Friday, two from Monday and two from Thursday, somewhat offset by two new teams on a Monday and two on a Thursday.

Promotion/Relegation has been dependent on where we've lost teams but generally, 1 or 2 teams have been promoted and similarly relegated. Two clubs requested that their teams play in a lower division due to loss of players. (Albrighton & Donnington Wood).

Consequently there will be twelve teams in Divisions 1 & 2, eleven in Divisions 3,4,5 & 6 and fourteen in the Thursday league.

Friday leagues will start 2 weeks after the Premier (22nd April (missing Easter the week before)) and finish one week before the Premier on 23rd September. This is because I've taken the opportunity to move the Queen's Jubilee fixtures (Fri 3rd June) en bloc to 23rd September rather than play them on Wednesday 1st June. Thanks to Mike Beckett, we've been able to match the existing Premier fixtures almost exactly. There is one exception which will require the Division 1 fixture between Wrockwardine Wood A v Newport A on 15th July to be rearranged.

Monday Leagues will start on 11th April and finish on 26th September missing Easter Monday, May Day and the August Bank Holiday.

The Thursday league will start on 7th April and finish on 29th September.

The table below shows the proposed division structures.
